Modern Slavery and Human Trafficking Statement

Introduction
This statement is made pursuant to section 54(1) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and sets out the steps that Planet Ocean Ltd has taken, and continues to take, to ensure that modern slavery and human trafficking are not taking place in our business or supply chains.

Our Business
Planet Ocean Ltd is a supplier of marine and environmental monitoring systems, operating mainly in the UK and Ireland. We are committed to acting ethically and with integrity in all our business relationships and to implementing effective systems and controls to prevent modern slavery.

Risk Assessment and Due Diligence
We recognise that certain parts of our business and supply chains may present a higher risk of modern slavery. To mitigate these risks, we:

- Assess modern slavery risks within our operations and supply chains

Supplier Expectations
We expect all suppliers, contractors, and business partners to:

- Comply with all applicable laws relating to modern slavery and human trafficking
- Treat workers fairly, lawfully, and with respect
- Maintain appropriate policies and controls to prevent modern slavery

Training and Awareness
We provide appropriate training and awareness activities to relevant employees to help them understand what modern slavery is, how to identify potential risks, and how to report concerns.

Reporting Concerns
Employees, suppliers, and other stakeholders are encouraged to report any concerns related to modern slavery to the Managing Director at terry@planet-ocean.co.uk, without fear of retaliation.

Continuous Improvement
We are committed to continually improving our practices to combat modern slavery and will review and update this statement annually.

Approval
This statement has been approved by the Managing Director of Planet Ocean Ltd.

T.H.A Sloane
Managing Director.

Iss C: October 2019 Reviewed T H A Sloane Managing Director 12th Jan 2024